Buenos Aires - Ushuaia - Calafate - Iguazu

01 Day: Arrive Buenos Aires

Upon arrival, you will be met at the airport by our local representative who will escort you to your hotel via private coach. The balance of the day you are free to explore this vibrant city on your own. Buenos Aires has a strong subway system, and taxis are plentiful and cheap, though you may just want to stroll along the pedestrian promenades living like a local.

Meals: None

02 Day: City Tours

Starting in the sophisticated neighborhood of Recoleta, see the cemetery where Eva Peron is buried and the Church of Our Lady of Pilar. We'll continue on to Palermo, with its elegant residences and Japanese gardens, then on to the colorful neighborhood of La Boca featuring typical cantinas. The oldest area of San Telmo with cobbled streets is also home to many tango houses. Finally, see the modern side of town showing off its port warehouses converted to chic flats in Puerto Madero.

Dinner Show and Tango Lesson: This evening's tango lessons might not turn you into a pro, but the experienced locals put on a show while you enjoy a sumptuous dinner. Its origins trace back to 1880 slums inhabited by Italian and Spanish immigrants, Africans and gauchos. By the 1920's the tango came out of the shadows and into the high-class ballrooms and is still on display today.

03 Day: Buenos Aires - Ushuaia

a.m. Transfer to Buenos Aires Airport for our fly to Ushuaia, Ushuaia is the capital of Tierra del Fuego, Antarctica and South Atlantic Islands Province, Argentina. It is commonly regarded as the southernmost city in the world. Ushuaia is located in a wide bay on the southern coast of the Great Island of Tierra del Fuego, bounded on the north by the Martial mountain range, and on the south by the Beagle Channel. It is the only municipality in the Department of Ushuaia, which has an area of 9,390 km² (3,625 sq mi). It was founded October 12, 1884 by Augusto Lasserre and is located on the shores of the Beagle Channel surrounded by the mountain range of the Martial Glacier, in the Bay of Ushuaia. Besides being an administrative center, it is a light industrial port and tourist hub. Upon arrival transfer to the selected hotel

Meals: Breakfast

04 Day: Beagle Channel Maritime Excursion

With this Boat Tour in Ushuaia you will be able to enjoy the stunning scenery of the Beagle Channel and the majestic mountains that run along its shores. This nautical adventure, visiting Isla de Lobos (Sea Lion Island), offers visitors the perfect opportunity to see these sea mammals in their natural habitat, as well as to observe other typical fuegian wildlife, while enjoying an unforgettable experience exploring Ushuaia's nature and marine life.

The Beagle Channel Maritime Excursion starts at Ushuaia's tourist port. There you will embark on a catamaran to sail across Ushuaia Bay. As the boat moves away from the coast, enjoy amazing views of the city's landmarks and the mountains that surround the island, such as Montes Olivia, Cinco Hermanos, los Montes Escarpados, as well as estancias Figue and Túnel and the Encajondado River. A few minutes later, heading southwest, this guided maritime tour will turn into the Beagle Channel, until it reaches Isla de los Cormoranes (Island of Cormorants) – home to the marine bird typical to this zone. Observe them hunting fish by diving into the water, before continuing your navigation to Isla de Lobos. Here you will get so see these amazing animals up close from a number of angles, and learn more about the habits of this colony of sea lions.

Finally, this maritime excursion will continue through the Beagle Channel to reach one of the most representative symbols of adventure travel: the Les Eclaireurs Lighthouse, which in French means ' Enlighteners ' or ' Scouts '. This lighthouse is also known, incorrectly, as the Lighthouse at the End of the World – a reference to Jules Verne's novel, which in turn refers to the San Juan Salvage. The Eclaireurs Lighthouse may not be the southernmost, but it is famous for its location and is the reference point for the channel. After visiting this famous landmark, return to Ushuaia.

Navigating the Beagle Channel by boat to Isla de Lobos is one of the most traditional activities in Ushuaia and certainly one of the most beautiful.

05 Day: Tierra del Fuego National Park

The Tour to Tierra del Fuego National Park offers you the chance to explore unspoilt landscapes of Tierra del Fuego, the territory located on the extreme southern tip of Argentina, just 11km from Ushuaia city. This half-day tour will teach you about the local ecosystem, the geography of the area and its interesting history, while your soul is captivated by the beauty of the landscapes are you breathe in the pure Patagonian air.

The Tierra del Fuego National Park Tour starts with a journey on Route 3 to the foot of Mount Susana, where the train station of the Southern Fuegian Railway, or Ferrocarril Austral Fueguino, is located. This railway was arduously built by the prisoners of Presidio del Fin del Mundo. You will have the chance to ride the End of the World Train. This activity is aimed at travellers who want to experience this historic railway, built to transport goods to the National Prison of Ushuaia, a place where the most dangerous prisoners and political detainees were sent. The service now runs for 8kms through the valleys of the National Park, places which can only be accessed by this train. Beyond the sad story that frames this rail service, the Southern Fuegian Railway is a unique experience with incredible views.

After this experience, the tour continues through the valley of the Rio Pipo to Ensenada Bay.

After a short hike through the trails of the park, immersing you in the ecosystem, you'll reach an observation point with spectacular views of Redonda and Estorbo Islands, the opposite coast of the Beagle Channel and the Snowy Mountains of Cadena Sampaio in Chile. The second stop on this tour in Ushuaia is Lapataia Bay, the geographic point that marks the end of National Route 3, an important highway known as the Pan Americana, which starts in Buenos Aires. There the tour explores unforgettable roads surrounded by Magellanic forests and lakes surrounded by birds, marine mammals and fish. At the same time, learn about the history of the Yámanas – the ancient indigenous people of the area – while observing the stunning sight of the end of the Andes, on the frontier with Chile. Subsequently, the tour will take you to Lake Roca or “ Acigami ” (the original indigenous name). This lake of glacial origin, like most water bodies in the area, is characterized by its clear water and fine stone shore. At a small shelter, enjoy a hot drink before returning to Ushuaia.

This tour to the National Park at the End of the World is an activity for the whole family, ideal for exploring the highlights of this significant national reserve in Tierra del Fuego. Enjoy a relaxed and comfortable tour with the best scenery and interesting stories of the cultural and natural heritage of the region. Book this guided tour of Tierra del Fuego National Park and walk, drive and go by train through the wonderful landscapes impressive navigation between icebergs " continuing towards the Upsala channel, the catamaran reaches the Herminita Peninsula (limit allowed by National Navigation Parks), from this point you can see a panoramic view of the glacier, following the route to the south by the Argentino lake until reaching the channel Spegazzini, in the channel one obtains an excellent perspective of the hanging glaciers Seco and Heim and the Spegazzini glacier. Navigation allows you to approach this glacier with frontal walls between 80 and 143 meters above the lake level; " Lunch is given in front of the Spegazzini glacier ", continues the navigation to the Puesto de Las Vacas (Canal Spegazzini bay) where it disembarks and a coordinated walk is carried out by the guides team, with a view of the old Settlement post, reconnaissance of flora and fauna. Return to the catamaran. The navigation route continues towards the north arm of the Argentino lake to navigate in front of the north wall of the Perito Moreno Glacier, 16:15 mooring of the boat in the Lago Argentino port for the descent of the passengers who finish the navigation or those who make the Excursion Super Glaciers, 16:40 hours departure of the catamaran to the private port La Soledad, arriving at 18:00 p.m.

Trekking

The excursion starts at the port " Bajo de las Sombras " approximately 6 km. before the Glacier Viewpoint, where it embarks to cross the Rico Lake, reaching the southwest coast after approximately 20 minutes of navigation in front of the south wall of the P. Moreno glacier. After the disembarkation, the refuge is accessed where the guides organize the groups that are composed of up to 20 people each. Then we start a walk along the lake shore for approximately 20 minutes to the glacier. Upon reaching the edge of the ice the guides place the crampons to the participants, who receive instructions on how they should move on the ice. The tour on the glacier is done at approximately 1:30 hours, and during the course of it you can see a variety of ice formations such as cracks, seracs, sinkholes, small lagoons, etc. The walk is moderate. The ice surface on which you walk is irregular, but firm and safe. Explanations will be received about the flora, fauna and general glaciology of the region as well as the particular phenomenon that occurs in the P. Moreno glacier and eventually produces its rupture. At the end of the walk, return to the refuge through the exuberant Magellanic forest..
